

Spin a Writing Topic

Use this digital spinner to decide your writing topic.

RED: A diary entry from the Revolutionary War. Imagine you are a child during the war, what things are happening? How do you feel? What do you hear or see? Which side are you on?

BLUE: Should we have a 4 day school week? What are the benefits of only 4 days? What are the downsides? Be sure to state your opinion and use reasons/examples from BOTH sides to support your opinion.

PURPLE: Write a letter to the students in 3rd grade. What should every 4th grader know? What is awesome about 4th grade? How can they be successful? Be sure to use correct letter writing procedures.

GREEN: Think about your favorite meal. What does it taste like? Using sensory details, describe the meal. How do you make each part of the meal? Using transitioning words, explain how to make your meal.

ORANGE: What is your favorite children's book? Use the characters and events in that story to create a drama. Remember to list your characters and describe your setting. Use dialogue to move the story forward.
